IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE SIDE

WRIT PETITION NO. 8050 OF 2004

Office Notes, Office Memoranda of of Coram, appearances, Court's orders and Registrar's orders : Court's or Judge's orders

---

Mr. P.N. Joshi for the petitioner.

CORAM: P.V. KAKADE, J.

DATED: 7TH MARCH, 2006

P.C.:

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner. The petition was filed against the order passed by the lower Court rejecting the application for amendment. However, it is stated by the learned counsel that the suit itself is disposed of and hence the petition is rendered infructuous and, as such, stands disposed of with no order as to costs.

2. Liberty is granted to both parties to agitate the issues which were involved in the writ petition, in the appellate Court.
